This durable, simple-to-use compact mobile floor stand combines a security enclosure with a sturdy pole and locking caster base. The durable metal enclosure features a powerful lock and key security system, making this stand an ideal solution for home, office, or retail spaces. The enclosure can be mounted either vertically or horizontally, for use in either portrait or landscape mode. It also contains plenty of room to allow interior cable routing so that your device remains charged while in use. The enclosure features a standard 75mm x 75mm and 100 x 100-millimeter VESA pattern, allowing easy interfacing with the stand or other compatible equipment. The stand travels on smoothly-rolling casters. To lock in place, simply use the foot toggle.
